

CAR ON FIRE AS "L" TRAIN DASHES ALONG

Motor Explodes on Third Avenue Car, and Crowd Sees Blaze in the Air.

FIREMEN WERE IN PERIL THEIR SECOND GO.

Three Live Third-Rails Were in Their Way, and They Had to Avoid Danger.

TRAIN EMPTY; NO ONE HURT.

It Was on the Way Downtown, and Was Intended to Help Carry the Crowds of the Rush Hour.

The motor of the last car of a Third Avenue elevated train, which was coming downtown empty on the center track, exploded with a terrific report this afternoon when the train was between Fifth and Sixth streets. A great shower of sparks fell into the street and before the train could get out and extinguish the flames the work of the car had caught fire and was blazing merrily.

Burning timber fell from the elevated structure to the crowded street below, and every once in a while an explosion would occur. The trainmen didn't seem to know just what was the matter, so they yelled to the street for some one to turn in an alarm.

A policeman met in a call for the firemen and they soon arrived on the scene. They ran ladders up the side of the elevated structure and carried lines of hose up. For fifteen minutes they fought the fire without making much impression on it. All the time they were working with three live third rails in their way, and they had to walk around very gingerly. Finally they got the fire under control and another train came along and pushed the stalled train out of the way.

The fire was a very spectacular one, and thousands of people out shopping in the vicinity of Third Avenue and the Fifth street station crowded the sidewalks to see the blaze. The train was coming down empty in order to help out during the rush hours. Had there been any passengers in the last car, they would probably have been burned.

The firemen were very rapidly after they got to the woodwork, and soon the flames were under control. The firemen were very rapidly after they got to the woodwork, and soon the flames were under control.

EX-JOCKEY HANGED.

WINCHESTER, Ky., Jan. 3.—John Hathaway, a negro, who fifteen years ago rated high as a jockey, was hanged here today for the murder of Billy Thomas, his personal driver. The man was hanged to a gallows in the city jail.

YOUNG CORBETT MATCHED WITH NELSON AGAIN

They Are to Meet in the Ring at 'Frisco Some Time Next Month.

THIS THEIR SECOND GO.

Jimmy Britt, Refusing an Offer to Fight Willie Lewis, Will Tackle Winner.

DENVERITE TRAINING HARD.

Battle Likely to Be One of the Best Ever Decided in a Ring on the Coast.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—"Young Corbett" and Battling Nelson, the great light-weight fighter, who recently gave Jimmy Britt, the pride of California, such a hard battle in their twenty-round bout at Mechanics' Pavilion here two weeks ago, have been matched at last. They have been secured by Jimmy Corbett, matchmaker of the Yosemite A. C., to engage in a twenty-round battle, the latter part of next month.

Corbett and Nelson met Nov. 23, and Nelson won in ten rounds, the seconds of the Denverite throwing up the sponge. Corbett claimed he prepared hurriedly and was not in good shape. Nelson and Corbett lost no time in accepting the terms offered by Corbett, and will sign the articles of agreement within the next few days.

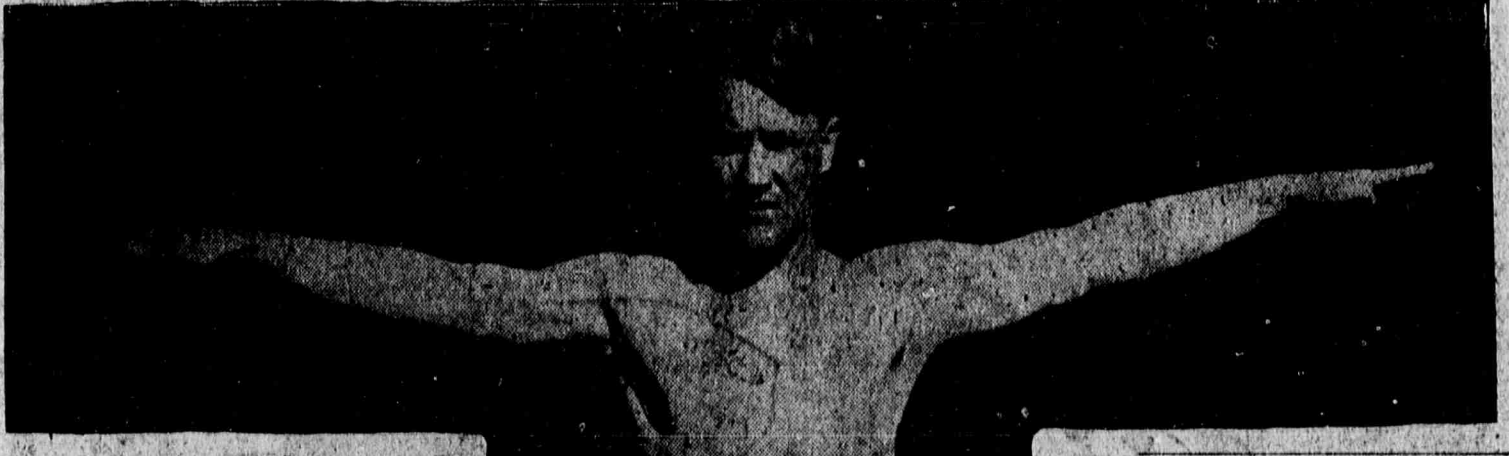

Jimmy Britt, who refused a flattering offer from Corbett to fight Willie Lewis, the New York light-weight, has consented to fight the winner of the Nelson-Corbett battle, but, judging from the way Britt expresses himself, he will not be prepared to fight the winner for at least three months.

Britt was in at present taking things easy, and was asked again to-day by The Evening World correspondent if he had reconsidered his plans and was willing to fight Willie Lewis for a side bet of $2,000, said:

"No, I have not changed my mind. The next man I would like to fight is James White, the English light-weight champion. I have already battled to England offering to fight White in California, but have not received a reply from him. If White refuses to come to this country and fight me in 'Frisco, I will go on the road with a theatrical company. I expect to be gone about three months."

"I received an offer a few days ago to fight 'Young Corbett, but as I have already fought him, and he whipped me, I don't think the public will agree with me in declining to fight him. I will fight the winner of the Nelson-Corbett fight, which is on for next month, and may the best man win."

FIGHTERS MATCHED TO MEET AGAIN SOME TIME NEXT MONTH IN 'FRISCO.

JAPAN HOLDS GARRISON OF PORT ARTHUR PRISONERS

Officers to Be Released on Parole, Rank and File Held—Siege Cost Japs 80,000 Men, While Stoessel Had but 10,000 Left Able to Aid in Defense.

TERMS GIVEN TO THE BRAVE DEFENDERS OF PORT ARTHUR.

OFFICERS—To be paroled and allowed to return to Russia, retaining side arms and personal property.
THE ARMY—To be held as prisoners of war. Taken to Japan.
THE WOUNDED—To be cared for by the Japanese and to have also the care and supervision of the Russian medical staff and Red Cross, now at Port Arthur.
NON-COMBATANTS—To be transferred by the Japanese from Port Arthur to neutral territory.

TOKIO, Jan. 3.—The rank and file of the garrison at Port Arthur will be brought to Japan as prisoners of war.
Gen. Stoessel and his commissioned officers will be paroled and allowed to return to Russia, retaining their side arms and personal property. Their parole will prevent them again taking part in this war until regularly exchanged.

The wounded in the hospitals will be cared for until their condition permits their removal as prisoners. They will have the care not only of Japanese surgeons, but the Russian physicians and Red Cross nurses will remain with them to render all possible aid.
The non-combatants will be moved from the place by the Japanese and transported to neutral service.
These are the chief points in the surrender so far as the terms have been made public.

The Japanese to-day took possession of several forts.
ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 3.—Gen. Stoessel's despatches by way of Chao to the General Staff relate how the position of the fortress of Port Arthur gradually became less safe and more critical the ravages of disease increasing enormously the casualty lists.

Toward the end of the year the supplies of ammunition completely gave out.
There were 14,000 sick and wounded in the hospitals and 300 fresh men.

BROADWAY FIRE MADE BIG STIR

Engine Horses Fell on Ivy Asphalt and Reflection of Mirrors in Flower Shop Magnified Small Blaze.

CLANGING BELLS HEARD IN THEATRE, BUT NO PANIC.

Announcement Made from the Stage that It Was a False Alarm—Caused by Explosion of Metal Polisher.

A small fire in the flower shop of A. Warrender, at No. 118 Broadway, two doors north of Froster's Fifth Avenue Theatre, at Broadway, and Twenty-eighth street, this afternoon caused much excitement among the women patrons of the store and was the means of illustrating the difficulties under which a part of the fire apparatus responds to the alarm, which was unsuccessfully sounded, labored.

The firemen, where a small blaze was kindled, resulted in the temporary uselessness of the fire apparatus.

The fire in the flower shop started when a woman, for a liquid metal polish, uncorked a bottle of the liquid, which in some unexplained way ignited. Owing to the arrangement of mirrors in the store the reflection made the inside appear one mass of flames. Women customers ran hurriedly from the store when the first fire was seen, and quickly a crowd collected, while inside the cool-headed clerk put out the fire with little effort.

The clanging of the fire engine bells in Broadway was heard by the users in Froster's Fifth Avenue theatre, and a crowd was taken to prevent any panic in the theatre. Announcement was made from the stage that the department had been called on a false alarm.

Fall of Fire Horse.
While responding to the fire, Engine No. 16, housed in Twenty-eighth street, and Fourth Avenue, met with an accident at Fourth Avenue, where the engine fell. The horse of the engine fell, and the engine was damaged.

DR. CHADWICK COULD NOT TALK TO WIFE IN PRIVATE

CLEVELAND, Jan. 3.—Dr. Chadwick to-day again called at the County Jail and asked that he be permitted to see his wife privately, in order to talk over their affairs. The doctor was informed that it would be necessary to get a permit from United States Marshal Chadwick. Thereupon Dr. Chadwick called upon the marshal and asked that he be allowed to confer with his wife without an officer being present. Marshal Chadwick refused the request.

LEGISLATURE TO PROBE LIFTING OF TENDERLOIN LID

Dr. Parkhurst and Directors of the Society for the Prevention of Crime Send a Letter to Commissioner McAdoo Making Startling Revelations Concerning the Situation.

NEW LEXOW INVESTIGATION IS TO FOLLOW THE DISCLOSURES

Text of the Letter in Which Violations of Law Are Set Forth Is Made Public and the Commissioner Is Asked to Wake Up and Do Something.

A thorough investigation of the Police Department along Lexow lines is believed to be indicated in the delivery of a letter signed by Dr. Parkhurst and the directors of the Society for the Prevention of Crime and addressed to Commissioner McAdoo. The letter makes an exposure of disgraceful conditions in at least five precincts, special attention being paid to the West Forty-seventh Street Precinct, called by McAdoo the model precinct, the true state of which was revealed by The Evening World weeks ago.

The letter was delivered to Commissioner McAdoo by Superintendent McClintock, of the Parkhurst Society, to-day. "Mr. McClintock waited in the ante-room of the Commissioner's office for some time, evidently expecting an answer, which he did not get.

THE LETTER TO M'ADOO.

The letter to Mr. McAdoo is as follows:
"Sir: Enclosed as you doubtless are with the details of administration, and obliged in some measure to see things through the eyes of your subordinates, many of whom are seriously discredited, you will certainly welcome the frank statement of a society whose familiarity with the municipal situation long antedates your own official connection with it, and which now, and always, seeks only to act in the public interest.

"We have observed with surprise, not unmixed with consternation, the eulogistic terms in which on two or three recent occasions you have publicly characterized the forces under your command. Not that there are not many members of the force who richly deserve every complimentary word that can be spoken in their behalf, but our own somewhat intimate acquaintance with current conditions compels us to the belief that the compliments thus evinced by you proceeds from some infatuation or other that is as odious as it is amazing.

"You will allow us, then, in all courtesy, to ask your attention to two or three matters that are fairly symptomatic of the present conditions and that also evince the kind of estimate in which your department and your administration of it are held by those who come into such relation with it as to be capable of an intelligent judgment.

HAVE NAMES OF POOL-ROOMS.

"I have before me at this moment a letter recently received from a dealer in real estate who commences with the inquiry: 'Is there no way in which your Society can prevent the corrupting influence of the pool-rooms on the east side of town?' He then proceeds to specify by name, street and number, giving details which we have been already able in part to verify. Now, why does he appeal to us instead of to Mulberry street? What explanation have you to give of the fact that so many of the complaints that reach us have previously been referred without effect to one or other of your officers? It is a common inquiry that our office makes of complainants: 'Why don't you go to the police?' Have been there, and can't get anything!

"You are quoted as saying that during the past year the number of daily complaints received at your office has dropped from two hundred to six, and out of what looks to be the unpopularity of your nature you apparently conclude that that reduction in complaints indicates a rise of 97 per cent. in municipal virtue. Let us see!

REFERS TO DANCE-HALL SCENES.

"You will let me refer to another incident of recent occurrence, which, though in a way quite insignificant, nevertheless tells a very straight and true story.
